CONTRACT NUMBER AT 50 CHARACTERS

The field account number has been extended to 50 characters

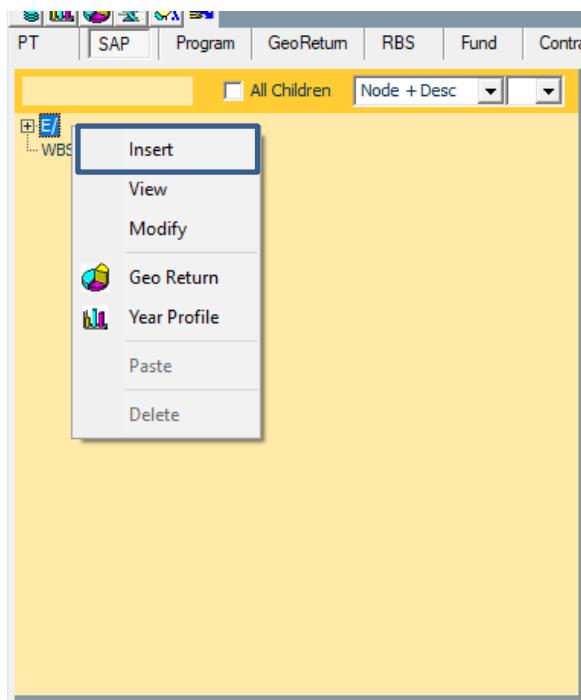

The screenshot shows the 'Contract Summary' interface. At the top, there are fields for 'CTR No' (containing a long string of numbers), 'Description' (GROUND SEGMENT AND OPERATIONS SUPPORT FOR ERB2), and 'Activity Area' (with a note: 'Shopping cart data has not been retrieved from the Datalake'). Below this is the 'Life Cycle' section, which includes a vertical timeline on the left and various date fields like 'PO Approval Date', 'PO Creation Date', 'Negotiation Date', etc., each with dropdown menus and checkboxes. To the right of the timeline are sections for 'DataLake Status', 'WBS', 'Actors', and 'Comment'. The 'Actors' section lists roles such as Prime Contractor, Name Contractor, Initiator, Original actors, Current actors, and Project Controller. The 'Comment' section contains a text area and a file attachment list.

The image illustrates the 'Import CMTL Data' feature in the MCP application, showing the process from file selection to data import.

Step 1: File Selection

An 'Open' dialog box is displayed, showing the file 'mcpimport.xlsx' selected. The file is a Microsoft Excel Worksheet (8.44 KB). The dialog also shows other files like 'V6.21.4-v6', 'V6.21.5 avant', 'V6.21.5 en cours', and 'export-CL5-EDU-100821.xls'.

Step 2: Import Configuration

A configuration dialog titled 'IPCDB EXCEL IMPORT CMTL DATA MCP' is shown. It specifies the 'Sheet Name' as 'Import' and the 'First Row' as '2'. A blue arrow points from the 'Open' dialog down to this configuration screen.

Step 3: Data Import

The main MCP application window is shown with the 'Import' sheet selected. The 'References Columns Excel' section defines the mapping between MCP columns and Excel columns. The imported data is visible in the grid, showing two rows of data corresponding to the 'ccn01' and 'ccn01' entries in the Excel file.

What's New 7.0.9 Release, January 2023

OPTION CONTRACT LIST POSITION

When opening the Contract tab, the list of contracts will be positioned at the beginning of "40001xx" contracts.

The screenshot shows the 'IPCDB GENERAL OPTIONS' dialog box. In the center, there is a table with columns 'Name', 'Value', 'Default Value', and 'Description'. One row in the table is highlighted with a blue background, corresponding to the 'Contract List Position' setting. The 'Value' column for this row contains the value 'true'. The 'Description' column for this row states: 'Position on the contract list when ipcdb launching'.

The screenshot shows the IPCDB application interface with the 'Contract' tab selected. The main area displays a list of contracts, with several entries starting with '40001'. To the right of the list, there are sections for 'Total', 'Planned', 'Actual', and 'Provisional' data. Below the main list, there is a smaller section labeled 'Contract Events'.
